Plan of Study

As a multidisciplinary degree program, the Bachelor of Liberal Arts requires two or more different areas of focus consisting of at least 21 hours minimum. This is your opportunity to get creative and design your degree in a way that is meaningful to you and your career goals.

Each area of focus must have a minimum of nine credit hours and should outline all of the remaining classes (exclude core) that you will take to fulfill your graduation requirements. Often times upper level coursework will require lower level pre-requisites. If the upper division courses you have selected have any pre-requisite classes, include them in your list.

Number of Hours Remaining for your BLA: ______________________
